When standing on a mountaintop, people seem to be close enough to be able to touch the clouds with their fingertips and feel the mists against their faces. Turn the light on and MIST will calmly illuminate your surroundings.

ZHE P 柘

ZHE is inspired by a wood from the Orient that is hard as rock. The metal lampshade is meticulously and deliberately hand welded together to resemble a cluster or rocks. Look closely and notice how each metal plate is a bit asymmetrical yet they all fit seamlessly together. Wooden stoppers under each frosted diffuser not only introduce warm elements of the wood, but functionally they soften up the overall light source. ZHE exemplifies subtle illumination in a grand scale.
